

Task

In this assignment you have to implement the Banker's algorithm, using any language of your choice.

You are given N - the number of processes, M - the number of resources, C - the current resource allocation matrix, R - request matrix. You have to implement a function that for given arguments tells if the state is safe or not.

Deadline 10.05.2019.